Boy's death prompts safety debate

SOUTH BAY-A 12-year-old South Bay boy was struck and killed by a tractor-trailer Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 7, when he was trying to cross the highway at the intersection of U.S. 27 and State Road 80.

The driver of the truck, Ramon Gonzalez, 26, 2938 N. W. 22nd St., said he had applied his brakes in order to avoid two pedestrians who were crossing the highway. He said he didn't see the third pedestrian, Albert Leon Booker, 135 S. W. 11th Avenue, and struck him with the right front side of his vehicle.

South Bay Patrolman Michael Stahl and Chief Roy Humsted arrived on the scene. The Florida Highway Patrol was later called to handle the case.

Trooper Darient Beavers and Trooper Leslie C. Herold are still investigating.

"This is why we were working so hard to reduce that possibility of a child getting killed crossing the highway," Humsted said, referring to the police department's push to increase personnel and improve the radar equipment.

"A lot of people don't slow down like they should in this city and take in consideration the children around the streets," he said. "The signs are clearly marked."

The tragic incident was also discussed at Tuesday night's city commission meeting.

"I am totally upset, perturbed, pissed off or whatever you want to call it," Commissioner Clarence Anthony said to fellow commissioners.

"The disrespect and irresponsibility of the people driving 60 miles per hour is uncalled for and I will not stand for it."

Mayor Vernita Cox reiterated Commissioner Anthony's request, referring also to the limited police staff available to patrol the highway speed offenders.

"We only have two police officers on duty in the daytime, so we will have to work in cooperation with the whole law enforcement agencies (Florida Highway Patrol)," she said.

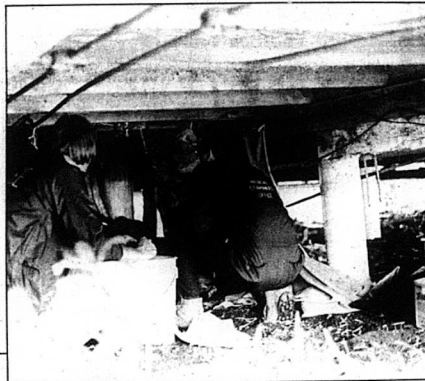

A member of the audience attending the commission meeting said that he has never seen a semi truck go 35 m.p.h. through the city.

"Well, Chief Humsted will change that," Cox said.

LAW ENFORCEMENT officers and a representative of the Medical Examiner's Office analyze the scene of where the body of an unknown man was found Friday, August 3.

Body found under house, ID unknown

BELLE GLADE-The body of an unidentified elderly man was found lying under the offices of Dr. J. Allen Baker, 200 S. W. Avenue B.

Apparently, the offices were no longer used for business, so the man had made the crawl space beneath the building his home.

Patrolman Darren Kirch was conducting property checks last Friday, Aug. 3, when he discovered the body under vacant offices.

The cause and time of death has not been determined.

The Palm Beach County Medical Examiners office is performing an autopsy to try to establish the identity of the man.

Jim Watt speaks to SB Commission

Representative Jim Watt of District 81 presented the 1984 Legislative Report at Tuesday night's city commission meeting stressing his support for the completion of State Road 80 and the preservation and enhancement of Florida's water resources.

Watt informed commissioners that once again the plans to improve State Road 80 have been placed on hold, but he reassured them that good news came with the bad.

He said the reason for the delay was due to the low bidding contractors failure to meet minority requirements in hiring, this means the project will go to the next low bidder, or they will have to be rebid.

Bid to break out accused killer fails

BELLE GLADE Clewiston, was arrested for conveying tools into a jail to aid an escape and held on the $15,000 bond.

Following a first court appearance Tuesday, Aug. 7, bond was lowered to $5,000 to get him out of prison.

Last Monday, Aug. 6, in a futile attempt to smuggle two hacksaw blades to Romena, Sharon L. Smith, 18, of defender. Det. Steve Haller of the Palm Beach Sheriff's Department said Smith had previously been charged with attempting to smuggle narcotics into the jail.

"After trying this smuggling caper, Smith was limited to a non-contact type visitation," he said.

But the failed attempt with the narcotics didn't stop her from trying again, he said.

Haller said he was informed that a woman in a Blue Camaro was going to try to smuggle something into the jail with the help of a jail trusty.

The detective went to the jail and watched Phillip Chastine, 20, of South Bay, the only trusty working at the time. Smith allegedly handed Chastine a bag which he hid in his pants, Haller said.

Haller got Chastine to relinquish the bag, and later Smith was picked up by sheriff's Det. Steve Landrum.

The trusty was held on $3,000 bond for the same charges.

Smith was also in possession of a sketch of the jail, both inside and outside, and a shopping list of what the couple would need to carry out the escape.

"It looks like they were planning to hide out in the woods somewhere," Haller said. "She was planning on doing all that for $320.50." (The total amount shown on the shopping list).

Hill seeks BG commission seat

BELLE GLADE-Belle Glade City Commission candidate David Hill says his experience on government committees would enable him to help city residents as a commissioner.

Hill, 51, 601 S.W. 13th St., qualified Monday, July 30, to run in the September 11 election for the commission seat currently held by Charles Goodlett.

A Belle Glade resident since 1946, Hill said, "I want the chance to work for the betterment of the city."

Hill served for about 14 years on the Belle Glade Civil Service

Board and also on the Palm Beach County Human Rights Committee. Currently, Hill serves on the Southwest Hospital District Board, which supervises Glades General Hospital. "I feel qualified to serve on the commission," he said.

The assistant principal at East Lake Middle School in Pahokee, Hill said he'd like to see the commission push for the expansion of the city's recreation program. There is especially a need for more senior citizens' activities, he said.

Condition of streets is another concern which Hill said he would look into as a commissioner along with trash and garbage collection. He said he would work to keep city property taxes as low as possible.

"On what they (the current commission) have done they're doing a good job," Hill said. "But there's always room for improvement."

He said the reason for the delay was due to the low bidding contractors failure to meet minority requirements in hiring, this means the project will go to the next low bidder, or they will have to be rebid.

Epidemic of aggravated battery breaks out in city

BELLE GLADE—Aggravated assault and battery charges were passed out like candy by Belle Glade police officers last week after fights broke out over everything from damage done to a vehicle to taking someone else's cigarette.

Last Sunday, Aug. 5, Zedekiah Clayton, 26, 523 Golden Pl., Pahokee, was arrested on three counts of aggravated battery for shooting three acquaintances outside of the Sunrise Restaurant on S.W. 4th St.

According to Lt. Louis Lowry of the Belle Glade Detectives Unit, these parties had been involved in an argument earlier Saturday at a dance at Lakeshore Service Center.

"They supposedly had words over a bottle of beer that got broken," he said. "At the Sunrise Restaurant someone said something, and then one guy pushed the other and then this guy (Clayton) started firing."

Bernatha Barnett, 34, 425 S.W. Avenue D, was shot in the left arm, Neville Earl Raymond, 26, 425 S.W. Avenue D, and Patrick Thompson, 22, 646 S.W. 3rd St. were both shot in the neck.

Apparently, Clayton thought Raymond had a gun, Lowry said.

"He (Clayton) was afraid if he (Raymond) had a gun he was going to go down the tubes," Lowry said.

Det. Michael Johnson made the arrest. Clayton was transported to the Palm Beach County Jail with bond set at $3,000.

Ronnie Howard, 23, 517 S.W. Avenue B, was also arrested on charges of aggravated battery for allegedly hitting another man over the head with a baton.

Howard was at the 2001 Club on S.W. Avenue B last Friday, Aug. 3, when he got into an argument with Lorenzo Hollingsworth, 33, 517 S.W. Avenue B, about who a cigarette belonged to.

Hollingsworth received a laceration to his head and two compressed vertebrae to his neck. He was treated and released from Glades General Hospital.

forearm last Friday, Aug. 3.

She was arrested by Officer Norman Hevey and placed on a $3,000 bond.

Felix Sosa, 22, 666 S.E. 2nd St., was also arrested for aggravated assault with a knife.

Last Thursday, Aug. 2, Sosa got into an argument with Absend Halum, 20, 6185 Main St., over damage done to Halum's car by Sosa.

Sosa allegedly threw a butcher knife at Halum. However,

'Early Irons' plan muscle car show

"The Spirit of the '50's Club in Ft. Myers has confirmed that they will be here," Tom Smith, President of the Early Irons Car Club, told members Wednesday night. "And the entries just keep coming." Smith enthusiastically added...the entries that Smith is referring to are coming in to the Early Irons Car Club's first car show that is planned for the Sugarland Park in Clewiston on August 26...this is the first major event for the newly formed car club and the enthusiasm is running high.

Members of the Early Irons Car Club are mainly interested in the autos which were produced prior to 1970, but Smith emphasized that this show is open to anyone who would like to show his or her vehicle. "We want the public to become familiar with our club and we feel that by opening the show to anyone who would like to enter will do just that." The show will begin at 5 p.m. on Sunday, August 26, and continue until late in the afternoon. Plans are to have the spectators judge the entries for the people's choice award about 3 p.m. Entry fee for participants will be five dollars, but for spectators, there will be no charge.

Other community clubs are also getting into the act. The Clewiston Jaycees have confirmed that they will be manning the concession stands. The Early Irons have decided that any proceeds from the show will go to the Association for Retarded Citizens of Hendry and Glades Counties.

For information about the show, call 813-983-5734 or 983-6106, and make your plans to come to the Early Irons Car Show in the Sugarland Park in Clewiston on August 26.

November elections the new option will also allow a single member district to have six or seven commissioners in a county, he said.

Commissioner Clarence, Anthony praised Watt for his support of the Glades area, and also expressed his shared concern for the needed programs for children.

"We do have a juvenile delinquent problem in the area, so we appointed a Juvenile Delinquent Officer," Anthony said. "We are going to call him 'Officer Friendly.'"

Officer Ray Ruby was appointed "Officer Friendly," and he will assist in "nonconflictual programs," Anthony said.

"He will be visible and will try to get the kids more involved. He will also counsel the juvenile delinquents. He will be the person to contact if parents are having problems with their kids," Anthony said.

Anthony also proposed a resolution to fellow commissioners to establish a Youth Advisory Council (YAC). The new group will deal with youth problems. He asked that a "line be delineated in the budget for the council. Those who will serve on the Youth Advisory Williams sideswiped a car driven by James Ball which was headed for Belle Glade. He landed upside down in the canal, but was able to escape.

Rev. Robert Carlson

A Pinch of Salt

Back in the "good old days" they knew a criminal when they saw one.

It happened in Ladysmith, South Africa during the Boer War (1899-1902). The British, seeking diamonds and gold, invaded territory occupied by Dutch settlers. While the city of Ladysmith was under siege, one civilian went out to visit the soldiers along the battle line. Chatting with soldiers was not exactly a crime, but this fellow had a way of saying the most discouraging things.

He had not conspired with the enemy, yet he was sentenced to one year in jail. The charge? Being a discourager. He was treated as a criminal for disheartening the troops at such a critical time.

You and I know some good church people who seem to have that all-but-rare "gift" of discouraging a fellow Christian.

Whenever a new idea is brought up, you hear them quote those eight poisonous words which have destroyed many a church: "We have never done it that way."

So the point is, when you come up with a negative idea as useful as a parachute, please share it. But until then, be discrete.

Fishing report

Compliments of Tennessee's Pro Guide Service

The Goodson Brothers of West Palm Beach were winners of last Sunday's, Aug. 5, fishing tournament at Slim's Marina in Belle Glade. The team brought in 34 pounds, 4 ounces of bass with a total of 14 fish. Belle Glade's Abbo Peacock was winner of the Big Fish competition catching a prize winning 9 pound, 4 ounce bass. Peacock and Bucky Sanders were also the winners of the Rods and Reels donated by Dick's Auto Parts. There were 70 boats participating in Sunday's tournament. Slim's will be sponsoring a Classic Bassin' Tours tournament on Aug. 19. Entry fee is $55 per boat and forms can be picked up at Slim's. Bass fishing has picked up tremendously in this past week with big bass biting wild shiners and crank bait around the grass beds. Bluegill and shellcrackers are scattered because of high water, but can be found in the grassy areas and around lily pads. Worms, crickets and small spinner baits are best baits. The largest bass on record caught in Lake Okechobee weighed in
